

Shannon was a dear member of our poetry community, the Mississauga Writers Group, and to me, a sweet, sweet friend. I enjoyed her art, her poems, but most of all her company, and the deep conversations we'd have. She was such a support to other artists, and a welcome addition to all the shows she'd come to. She had a smile which could brighten anyone's day, and the biggest, most compassionate heart. She truly cared about people.

She will be greatly missed. ❤️
